

LinkedIn Branding

Litmus V2 career/resume RAG knowledge-base document.

About section

A strong LinkedIn About section opens with a hook, summarizes key skills and experience, and ends with a call to action or invitation to connect, using a first-person conversational tone.

Headline

A professional headline appears with a person's name across LinkedIn, including search results. Specialty keywords and a value proposition increase recruiter discoverability.

Open to Work

Open to Work signals active job seeking to recruiters and can increase visibility in recruiter search results and inbound outreach.

Recommendations

A small number of specific, relevant recommendations from former managers or colleagues adds credibility and helps validate claimed skills.
